

Time line of Major Terrorist Attacks in India

May 31, 2013; Some unidentified persons exploded crude bombs in four different parts of Kosi Kalan town near Mathura, injuring five people and creating panic.

February 21, 2013; Hyderabad twin blasts kill at least 20 and hurt more than 140 people. IM is behind the explosions

August 1, 2012: Pune blasts. Four coordinated low-intensity explosions struck the busy arterial J M road in the heart of Pune tonight raising the specter of terror.

February 13, 2012; Four people were hurt including Israel diplomat when a stick bomb was attached to an Embassy car

September 7, 2011: Bomb at High Court in Delhi. 15 people killed more than 50 injured.

July 13, 2011: At least 21 people are killed and more than 140 injured in three bomb blasts in Mumbai.

December 7, 2010: A bomb explodes on the banks of Ganga in Varanasi, Uttar Pradesh during evening prayers, killing a girl and injuring 20 people, including some foreigners.

October 14, 2010: At least five people injured in a minor bomb explosion in Kanpur city of Uttar Pradesh.

February 13, 2010: A blast in German Bakery in Pune city of Maharashtra kills nine people and injures 45.

April 6, 2009: A car bomb blast in Guwahati kills six people and injures 32.

November 26-29, 2008: Terror attack in Mumbai kills 166 Indians and foreigners.

October 30, 2008: Terror attack in Guwahati kills 61 and injures 300.

September 29, 2008: Blast in Malegaon in Maharashtra kills eight people and injures 80.

September 13, 2008: Serial blasts in Delhi kill 30 people and injured more than 100.

July 26, 2008: Serial blasts in Ahmedabad kill 40 people and injured more than 50.

July 25, 2008: Nine explosions in Bangalore kill one and injuring 12.

May 13, 2008: Eight serial blasts rock Jaipur in a span of 12 minutes leaving 65 dead and over 150 injured.

October 11, 2007: Bomb blast inside Ajmer Sharif shrine during Ramadan kills three and injures 28.

August 25, 2007: 32 dead, 60 hurt in Hyderabad terror blast.

May 18, 2007: A bomb at Mecca mosque in Hyderabad kills 14 people.

February 19, 2007: Two bombs explode aboard a train from India to Pakistan, charring at least 66 passengers, most of them Pakistanis, to death.

September 8, 2006: 30 dead and 100 hurt in twin blasts at a mosque in Malegaon in Maharashtra.

July 11, 2006: Seven bombs explode on Mumbai's trains killing over 200 and injuring more than 200.

March 7 2006: Twin bombings at a train station and a temple in Varanasi kill 20 people.

29 October 2005: Three bombs placed in busy New Delhi markets a day before Diwali kill 62 people and injured hundreds.